Scope and Contents

In 2001 the Oral History Committee of Historic Takoma received a grant from Montgomery County's Historic Preservation Commission to conduct interviews with three longtime residents of Takoma Park, Maryland. Topics include public schools, World War II, architecture, real estate development, transportation, the African-American community, the civil rights movement, churches, and recreation in the neighborhood and metropolitan area. All interviews were conducted by Eilene McGuckian. The collection consists of transcripts only.

Revision Description

Additional processing completed by Mark Greek. 2017

Custodial History

The Historic Takoma conducted these interviews in 2001. The transcripts of these interviews were transferred to the Library in the early 2000s. There is no deed of gift for this collection.

Processing Information

After the initial deposit of the transcripts in the Library, the transcripts were bound, cataloged and added to Washingtoniana book collection. In 2014, the transcripts were digitized and in 2017 the collection was reprocessed. Transcripts were placed into folders and boxed. All administrative documents were placed into the control file.

Conditions Governing Use

The D.C. Public Library does not hold copyright. It is the responsibility of the researcher to obtain permission from Historic Takoma to publish or exhibit information. Reproduction of oral Histories without release is not permitted.
