Biographical / Historical

The DCCA was founded in 1922 to promote and protect the interests of the residents of the Dupont Circle area. In 1969 DCCA was incorporated as a charitable and educational organization for civil and social improvements in the area. DCCA offers community grants for arts and culture, community partnerships, education and historic preservation.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

The collection contains three written transcripts of oral histories from members of Kathryn (Kay) Amelia Eckles, Jewell Fenzi, and Marilyn Newton. Each oral history is accompanied by a photo each. The collection also contains a newspaper clipping that announces the first DCCA Oral History Project meeting. There is no information on the DCCA Oral History project in regards to when it officially began.
