Biographical / Historical

The Daughters of the American Revolution was founded in 1890 as a service organization dedicated to the promotion of patriotism, historic preservation, and education. The DAR is open to any woman, at least 18 years of age, who can prove blood lineal descent from an ancestor who aided in achieving American independence. The District of Columbia State Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was established in 1891, with local chapters forming as early as 1892. Though there were once as many as 60 local chapters, most have either disbanded or merged together. As of 2020, there are 18 local chapters in D.C.
