Biographical / Historical

Joaquin De Alba was born in Cadiz, Spain in 1912. He was an illustrator, painter, and political cartoonist who published his work under the pseudonym 'Kin' in Spain, and under his own name in the United States. His career as a political cartoonist began at the ABC newspaper of Seville, Spain in 1926, and he continued to work for various publications there until he left first for New York, and then later moved to Washington, DC. In 1966 he began working for The Washington Daily News. He eventually moved to Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic where de Alba was professor in the School of Fine Arts, which later became the National School of Visual Arts. He was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize in 1966 for his work. During Lyndon B. Johnson's presidency, he drew original cartoons for the Johnson Presidential Library and Museum in Austin, Texas. The library holds 72 original political cartoons published in The Washington Daily News. de Alba died in Palma del Rio, Spain in 1983.
